LOU DE PRE Kashmir Pink is a luxurious eau de parfum for women that redefines elegance and femininity. Created for lovers of sophisticated floral fragrances, it offers a beautiful alternative to high-end niche perfumes with an exceptional composition and long-lasting quality. If you're looking for a Delina Parfums de Marly perfume replacement, Kashmir Pink is your ideal match.

Top Notes: A Sparkling Fruit Prelude

The fragrance opens with a luminous blend of litchi, rhubarb, and bergamot. These top notes provide a juicy, slightly tart freshness that instantly captivates and lifts the senses. The opening feels vibrant, playful, and feminine — a perfect introduction to the floral richness that follows.

Heart Notes: Romantic and Opulent Florals

At the heart of Kashmir Pink lies a lush bouquet of rose, peony, and lily of the valley. This floral core is soft, powdery, and graceful — a tribute to classic romance with a modern twist. The rose is both airy and sensual, balanced by the gentle sweetness of peony, adding depth and complexity to the fragrance.

Base Notes: Sensual and Embracing Warmth

The fragrance dries down into a comforting base of musk, vanilla, and cashmere wood. These notes create a creamy, velvety backdrop that lingers on the skin for hours. The musky undertone enhances the femininity of the floral composition, making Kashmir Pink not just memorable, but irresistible.

Why Choose LOU DE PRE Kashmir Pink?

If you're searching for a refined and affordable alternative to a cult floral perfume, LOU DE PRE Kashmir Pink delivers both in composition and performance.
